The Reader's Review

Puppet Theater: Meet Our Thespians and Puppets!

Quite a Production!

On the evening of Aug. 3rd, a group of young people who had practiced and rehearsed for weeks presented four short plays to a full house in our program room. It was hard to say who enjoyed it more, the kids and the adults in the audience, or the crew and cast. The scenes below are from The Princedom and the Pea.

First Came the Rehearsals!

Then Came the Show!

LIBRARY WINE WALK

The Ellwood City Library sponsored its very first wine walk on Friday, August 11th. The 400 and 500 blocks of Lawrence Avenue were the site of nine various wineries, distilleries and breweries. Local food and beverage vendors and bakeries also participated. It was a beautiful night and the streets were crowded with happy folks enjoying good food and drink. We would like to thank everyone who participated. Your support is vital to helping us keep the library as one of Ellwood City's greatest treasures!
